Eren: I second.

Motion Passed with No Objections

3. INFORMATION/DISCUSSION

Title: 2023-2024 DASG Budget Stipulations

This item is to review and discuss potential revisions to the DASG Budget Stipulations.

Presenter: Dennis Shannakian

Time: 30

Dennis: Looking at the spreadsheet for Fund 41, you will see mostly supplies (textbooks, etc.). Computer program wants some parts.

Amy: #12. Lisa was talking about putting a cap on promotional clothing, so we could perhaps put a cap on that.

Lisa: Clarify if it includes tax and shipping

Dennis: What kinds of things do we see at other schools? Or like with CCCSAA for example? Look into different options for what ICC can purchase, and see what other colleges are doing.

Lisa: I know inflation has increased (over $75 for one clothing item).

Amy: I have seen hand sanitizers, spray bottles, mints, etc. and other ASB do not allocate as much money as DASG does. What I have learned at Seesaw is that no other school allocates as much as DASG. No programs would dip into their funding and the ASB would keep their funding. As for clothing, this is definitely something to think about.

Dennis: What kinds of embroidery did you see?

Amy: T-shirts, etc. Nothing out of the ordinary. For #13, we didn't fund the stipulation. I have a question about #24. Is it referring to the B budget?

Dennis: No, salaries are A Budget. Originally, this was supposed to be temporary, but as prices keep going up, we should try to work with PAC to get that reversed. If not all at once, at least slowly.

Amy: Me and Izat are going to the SSC tomorrow because there were some talks that their budget disappeared. We hope to institutionalize their services.

Dennis: There are potential resolutions to pursue which I saw at LAC.

Amy: I was talking with Mohammad about it earlier, but there are so many costs that need to be covered. They need to be institutionalized. How powerful are resolutions?

Lisa: The college budget is surely heading for more fiscal cuts. It happens at least every decade. It happens over and over.

Dennis: 30 and 31 seem to not be necessary anymore.

Amy: I know that for their website, they have a column for advertising on La Voz.

Lisa: There is going to be a request for a line item for transfer. I copied TJ on that email. Chair will decide if there is a line item transfer.

Amy: _____ I said "poor Lisa".

Dennis: This is the update for fall athletics.

TJ: I think it is good.

Dennis: Can you please review it before the next finance meeting and let me know if you have any questions?

TJ: Are there any questions? No? Okay, so I think we can move forward.

Burning Issues/Questions

TJ: Any burning issues or questions?

Dennis: IF you don't think it's controversial, you can just approve it on the transfer.

Lisa: For a conference, I think it will be beneficial if it is presented. When I get the request, I will let her know to put her on the agenda. In-person or via Zoom.

Amy: Huge amount.

Lisa: Travel details in the DASG Finance Code

Dennis: I think it is either 50 or 60 miles if a conference is within that distance. I thought it was 60?

Lisa: If they can at least get registration paid, but I am unsure about lodging.

Dennis: The district has a policy that if it is within a distance, they will not pay lodging.

Amy: I am unsure if this is the direction students want to do instead of printing for La Voz and putting the money into conferences.

Amy: We are looking to get more DASG sweaters. We swore Javier and Asiya in on Wednesday. The sweater we have is a medium, Javier is a large, and Asiya is a small. I don't want all of us to go somewhere and then have someone not have a sweater.

Lisa: I think Dennis can talk to the company.

Dennis: Going back to your question about clothing items, it can also be printed and 2) we don't have to use __ embroiders. They can do printing items, but DASG has purchases from other areas. It gets complicated.

TJ: Any other questions or issues?

Isaac: Hello everyone!

TJ: Any public comments?

Lisa: clothing question

Amy: Doesn't ICC fund that too? So this is a separate account?'

Lisa: Don't have ICC buying their own thing, DASG buying their own thing, etc. Have both on one promotional item.

Amy: There are two accounts so ICC can have their own money, because I am also designing ICC their own sweaters.

Dennis: Object 14 is for both clothing items and promotional giveaways. ICC may not have as much clothing to purchase, but the account should cover both DASG and ICC, and the account should be used to purchase other items for ICC.

Lisa: Goal is to do a joint promotional item.

Introduction and Approval of Prospective Interns

TJ: If you are a prospective intern, please come up.

Varick Reynaldo: 3rd meeting

Reyhan Su: 3rd meeting

Calista Kurniawan: 2nd meeting

Adjournment
