SYLLABUS

Scope: This course is designed to expose you to a wide range of artistic and art historical knowledge. After an introductory chronological survey of pre-historic through modern art, the course will take a thematic approach and will concentrate on the methods artists use to achieve their stylistic effects, as well as an analysis of the role art plays in cultures and societies. By the end of this quarter you will be able to identify various artistic periods and styles, demonstrate critical analysis of artworks, and make use of artistic academic vocabulary.

Arts 1A Student Learning Outcomes: Students will analyze the social experiences of artists, demonstrating how artists' relationships with their patrons was a defining factor in the production of works of art. Students will demonstrate visual literacy and critical thinking skills by evaluating diverse scholarly perspectives when interpreting works of art. Students will investigate the different techniques utilized in the production of works of art through written analysis based on firsthand evaluation of art objects in local collections.

Reading: The text is strongly recommended, but not required.

Getlein, Mark. Living with Art, 9th edition. New York: McGraw-Hill, 2010.

If you find another edition for less money, please feel free to use it! The reading assignments are correlated with the class discussions, and are listed below.

Exams: There will be one short quiz every week, for a total of 11 quizzes. Each quiz will be multiple choice. In addition, there will be one midterm and one final exam that will consist of free response questions. I will not accept midterms or finals that have been written with AI. NOTE: in accordance with De Anza College regulations, if you opt not to take the final exam, you will NOT pass the class. No makeup exams will be given except in cases of emergencies.

Paper: The paper assignment will require a virtual or in-person trip to a museum, and will consist of an analysis of one or two pieces of art. Further details will be discussed in class. Please note that I will not accept papers that have been written with AI.

Grading:

Quizzes	20%	Every week, Sundays by 11:59 pm
Midterm	20%	Monday, October 28
Paper Assignment	30%	Friday, November 22
Creative Creations	10%	Friday, December 6
Final Exam	20%	Tuesday, December 10

Grading Scale: 93-100=A, 90-92=A-, 87-89=B+, 83-86=B, 80-82=B-, 75-79=C+, 70-74=C, 64-69=D+, 60-63=D, 54-59=D-, Below 54=F

Attendance:

Attendance is required, and participation and questions are strongly encouraged. Attending class every week, watching the online lectures, and completing the weekly quizzes are required. Otherwise, if you do not watch three lectures on canvas or fail to come to three classes, I have the option of dropping you from the class. PLEASE NOTE: If you stop attending class (and watching lectures), and do not take the necessary step to drop the class, you will automatically receive a failing grade.

Requirements:

Attendance, the Quizzes, the Midterm Exam, the Paper Assignment, the Pandemic Pictures project, and the Final Exam are all required. Otherwise, an incomplete or failing grade will result. Only in the case of emergencies will consideration be given for late papers and make-up exams. Please note that I will not accept any work that has been written or created with AI. When you submit an essay or assignment for this class, the expectation is that it is your writing.

Office Hours:

I encourage you to talk to me. I am more than willing to spend time outside of class to help in any way that I can. My office hours are on Tuesdays from 2:30-3:20 on campus in Forum 2E, and Wednesdays from 1:30-2:20 on zoom. The link can be found on our class canvas homepage. You may also make an appointment with me to have an individual live Zoom session by emailing me to set up a day and time by contacting me through Canvas or via email: pastureldeborah@fhda.edu.

Communicating with me: I would ideally like to hear from you weekly (or more!). You can talk to me after our class on Tuesdays, or you can come to my on- campus office hour right after class, or you can show up to my live zoom office hour (see the link on our Canvas home page). You can also message me on Canvas. I generally respond within 24 hours Monday through Friday. If I don't respond to you, kindly message me again. 😊 I will be sending out weekly Announcements through Canvas about the class and information I think might interest you, and you can feel free to reply.

Expectations: In this class, I expect you to: 1. Contribute to a positive learning environment by being open to the ideas and opinions of others. 2. Not cheat. Cheating will not be tolerated. If you are caught cheating on an exam, your exam grade will reflect that. If I feel you have committed plagiarism in your paper assignment, you will be asked to rewrite it until I am satisfied that you have utilized your own words. 3. Finish quizzes, exams, and paper on time. Readings work together with the material we cover in class. Completing the reading assignments will help you to contribute to class discussions.
